

A collection of 11 flags from various countries, including Argentina, Australia, and others, displayed in two rows. The flags are: 1. A flag with a green field, a black wheel-like symbol, and a blue diagonal stripe. 2. A flag with a yellow field, a blue triangle, and a black triangle. 3. A flag with a white field, a blue star, and a blue diagonal stripe. 4. A flag with a white field, a yellow star, and a blue diagonal stripe. 5. A flag with a white field, a yellow star, and a blue diagonal stripe. 6. A flag with a yellow field, a white circle, and a blue diagonal stripe. 7. A flag with a dark blue field, a white star, and a white diagonal stripe. 8. A flag with a yellow field, a red triangle, and a white triangle. 9. A flag with a light blue field, a white circle, and a blue diagonal stripe. 10. A flag with a dark blue field, a yellow sun, and a white diagonal stripe. 11. A flag with a yellow field, a white circle, and a blue diagonal stripe.

This image displays a collection of 60 logos and flags for the City of Toledo, Ohio, arranged in a 10x6 grid. The designs are diverse, representing various aspects of the city's identity, history, and branding. Key elements include:

- Historical and Official Seals: Several logos feature the official seal of the City of Toledo, which depicts a ship on the Maumee River, surrounded by the text "THE CITY OF TOLEDO" and "1837". Other historical designs include a sun and gear, a sun rising over waves, and a sun with rays.
- Modern Branding: Contemporary logos often use bold colors (blue, yellow, red, green) and geometric shapes. Some feature stylized letters, such as a large "T" or "A", or incorporate the city's founding year "1837".
- Symbolic and Artistic Designs: Many logos are artistic interpretations of Toledo's landmarks and nature. These include depictions of the Maumee River, the Toledo Express Company building, the Toledo Museum of Art, and various symbols like a compass rose, a sun, and a gear.
- Community and Cultural Logos: Some designs focus on community themes, such as "Toledo 1837" with a sun and a lighthouse, or "Toledo, Ohio" with a sun and a house.

The logos vary in style, from traditional heraldic shields to modern, abstract geometric shapes, reflecting the city's rich history and its commitment to innovation and community.